

MODEL ASSET ALLOCATION

STERLING INVEST FLEXIBLE INCOME FUND

29 February 2024

OBJECTIVE

This is a conservative income based portfolio which aims to deliver money market beating returns and real capital growth to investors. It is suitable for risk averse investors, or those looking to set aside funds for a near term liability. The funds included in this portfolio all exhibit strong risk management expertise and aim to deliver the target return at minimum risk. The portfolio will at times hold a range of instruments across fixed income, credit, listed property and money market investments to maximise income while generating a low level of real capital growth.
